Position Overview

The court is seeking applicants for a full-time, term law clerk position in our Sacramento office. The incumbent will assist Senior District Judge Garland E. Burrell, Jr. by conducting substantive review, research and writing on a wide range of issues that arise in federal litigation, specifically including civil law and motion. The position is available immediately with a term end date of September 4, 2015.

Minimum Qualifications

For consideration, applicants must be law school graduates with excellent academic records. Applicants with practical legal writing experience, post graduate legal work experience in a high-volume, production oriented work environment and/or federal clerkship experience are preferred.

For appointment at a JSP grade 11 step 1 (currently $62,686), an applicant must be a law school graduate and have the equivalent of one year of full-time legal work experience after graduation from law school. Substitutions for the one year include:

- Graduation in the upper third of a law school class;
- Experience on the editorial board of a law review; publication of a noteworthy article in a law school student or scholarly publication;
- Special high-level honors for academic excellence in law school, such as election to the Order of the Coif;
- Winning of a moot court competition or membership on a moot court team that represents the law school in competition with other law schools; participation in the legal aid or other law school clinical program;
- Or summer experience as a law clerk to a state or local judge or law clerk experience on a continuous basis in a private firm while attending law school.

For appointment at a JSP grade 12 step 1 (currently $75,136), an applicant must meet the qualifications for a JSP grade 11, possess one additional year of full-time legal work experience after graduation from law school (no substitutions permitted) AND be a member of the Bar of a state, territorial, or Federal Court of general jurisdiction.

For appointment at a JSP grade 13 step 1 (currently $89,347), an applicant must meet the qualifications for a JSP grade 12 and possess at least one additional year of full-time legal work experience after graduation from law school (no substitutions permitted).

Disclosures

The Court reserves the right to modify the conditions of this job announcement, or to withdraw the announcement, any of which may occur without prior written or other notice.
