INVESTIGATORS AND ) INTERPRETERS )
_____ )

Pursuant to the provisions of the Criminal Justice Act (CJA), Title 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(a)(1) and (c), and considering CJA defense counsel, investigator and interpreter needs to visit their clients housed by the United States Marshal Office in detention facilities distant from the charging division,

The Judges of the Eastern District of California hereby authorize, without further order of the court, CJA defense counsel, investigators and interpreters up to 6 overnight trips per case per calendar year to visit their clients detained at facilities requiring 3 or more hours travel one-way. The Court encourages CJA attorneys, investigators and interpreters to meet as many clients as effectively possible during these trips and to bill their time split between these clients.
